

I do not want to see any changes that would lessen the effect of Indiana's no call law. The law has dramatically cut the number of calls coming to my home and therefore our family enjoys more peace time together without annoying phone calls interrupting our evenings.